

A Leeuwarden Free Tour. It's the perfect introduction to your stay in Leeuwarden. A pop podium and a cafe.

B Blokhuispoort. This former prison is now the cultural heart of Leeuwarden with creative shops, art galleries, and all these spots.

C Historisch Centrum Leeuwarden. See an exhibition about the history of Leeuwarden.

D Luilekkerland. A really nice 17th century courtyard. Around the corner you can find another one: The Boshuizen almshouse.

What's for free in Leeuwarden?

On Friday evenings we like to enjoy live music at "Podium Asteriks" in the former prison Blokhuispoort. Every Friday from September to June you can see 3 bands for only 5 euro.

For shopping we head to the smaller streets like Nieuwe Oosterstraat, St. Jacobsstraat, Kleine Kerksstraat and Slootmakersstraat (for vintage furniture).

In the evenings we like to drink a local beer, or "Oldehovebietje" at Café de Stee.

Priuw (R), a shop in the Nieuwe Oosterstraat, is the best place to buy local food and drinks.

You can find us chilling in the grass of the city park Prinsentuin (N).

Where the locals go

E Boomsma Distillery Museum. Learn about the local bitter Beeremburger.

F Oude stadsbegraafplaats. This old 19th century graveyard at the Spanjaardslaan is a world in its own. Worth a visit any time of the year.

G Spot graffiti in the Hamasteeeg, Oude Lombardsteeg, Achter de Hoven and Amelandshof (for a mural of Miyamoto Musashi).

H to M Spot beautiful old buildings like the city hall, de waag, central apotheek or the Jacobijner church.

Not for free but also fun in Leeuwarden

O and P Prinseshof. The best museum in town. It's about ceramics, but don't let that stop you. But if you want to learn more about Friesland, visit the Fries Museum.

Q Explore the canals. Join a praamvaren boat tour or rent a canoe. *check the map inside to find all these spots.
